

Complete the sentence using ONE WORD. Pay attention to spelling and punctuation.

Diana: His untimely shook the family.

Sangakara: Yeah, that's sad, indeed. But how did he ?

Complete the sentence using ONE WORD. Pay attention to spelling and punctuation.

Amy: I drenched in the rain the whole night and caught a cold

Jennifer: Oh, no. Are you also having a temperature?

Complete the sentence using ONE WORD. Pay attention to spelling and punctuation.

Robert: Hello, I'd like to my reservation.

Agent: Sure. Don't you want rebook it to a later date?

Robert: I'm afraid not. I'm not the trip.

Complete the sentence using ONE WORD. Pay attention to spelling and punctuation.

Barack: I have a for you.

Michelle: Sure. Ask me.

Barack: Did you from York or SUNY with a degree in Computer Science?

Complete the sentence using ONE WORD. Pay attention to spelling and punctuation.

Tina: I'd like to to her.

Meena: But why?

Tina: I have falsely her of copying my work.

QUESTION 1

Not yet answered

Marked out of 2.00

 Flag question

Complete the sentence using ONE WORD. Pay attention to spelling and punctuation.

Arnab: A new board and management team have over the company.

Sally: Oh, really? I think it's good for the company as it went last year, and I hope the new management will pump in more funds to pay off some of those debts.

Complete the sentence using ONE WORD. Pay attention to spelling and punctuation.

Ram: He took the decision in a confused state of mind .

Thia: He shouldn't have done that, if you ask me.

Complete the sentence using ONE WORD. Pay attention to spelling and punctuation.

Ali: I'm really confused with both names. They look the same.

Gill: I think you need to change one of the names to avoid the .

Complete the sentence using ONE WORD. Pay attention to spelling and punctuation.

Sunil: I'm going to buy a matching of vases for my living room.

Rani: That sounds great. So, how much are they going to you?

Sunil: I think around 5000 dollars.

Rani: 5000 dollars? You must be out of your mind!